GOING . . . GOING . . .

Dear Valleyites:

So we think we live in one of the nicest spots in the world! We have chosen this type of rustic and rural charm for the place we call "home". Most of us want to live in a quiet, unsaturated, off-the-beaten track way and we feel that the Carmel Valley really answers our desires. We shouldn't have to keep reminding ourselves about these things, but we'd better. Because there is an element always busy pressuring for "change"; change that will constantly down-grade the Valley with more commercial conformism, more chopped up acres, more concentration of population, more clearing away of trees and native growth, more bright lights and gaudy signs, more of everything that will make this Valley like the thousands of identical communities across the country; where it is becoming more and more an "ugly America".

Now we face a new threat to easy roads, scenic beauty, quiet countryside, hikers and riders of horses and bicycles. It seems that our county road people want to give us a four lane freeway. (To be able to race from one glaring super-market to

MONTEREY DRUGGIST AND PARTNER BUY 9-STORE AIRWAY BUILDING

The Village grapevine buzzed with the news last Thursday: not only had the Carmel Valley General Store been sold, lock, stock, and barrel, but the entire building--housing a total of 9 stores--had been sold as well.

Niles Pease, well-known Monterey druggist, and Kenneth G. Van Hagen have purchased the building from Mrs. Muriel Loesel and the General Store business from Mr. and Mrs. Ed Graham and Dr. C. Winter Van Horn.

Pease will continue to operate his Monterey pharmacy; he and Van Hagen will continue to lease the other 8 stores to their present operators. Van Hagen and his wife, June, will operate the General Store.

Pease and Van Hagen had invited owners of the 8 other businesses to a dinner party last night.

Pease said that he welcomes ideas from all Valleyites regarding ways to improve the exterior appearance of the entire building as well as suggestions as to the type of merchandise people would like to have stocked by the General Store.

Van Hagen has been affiliated with the Brunswick Drug Company for the past 9 years, and, says Pease, "knows the sundry business like a book." The druggist himself has been on the Monterey Peninsula since 1931. "Too MANY years," he laughed.

HORSELESS CARRIAGES DELIGHT GUESTS AT CV INN BUT DISAPPOINT HOPEFUL SIGHTSEERS IN VILLAGE

"I'm new here, but I didn't realize your Village grapevine was so effective," apologized Bob Johnson of Rancho Canada, on being told that a hopeful contingent of Villagers young and old (plus the usual assortment of canines) had lined Carmel Valley Rd. last Saturday to wait in vain for a visit from a 25-car caravan of Horseless Carriages.

Central California members of the Horseless Carriage Association of America were persuaded early Saturday morning by Johnson to wind up their scheduled tour of the Peninsula by returning to Salinas via the Valley.

Al Fry of Carmel Valley Inn, forever hospitable, arranged a coffee-and-doughnut reception on a moment's notice (and 'tis said that a few stayed for something stronger). The plan was that the caravan should drive through the Village, so Al put the famed secret grapevine process into action and people congregated expectantly. Unhappily, tour leader Duane Peterson of Fresno decided belatedly that the group, already one-half hour behind schedule, would have to pass up this extra privilege, and it's true that they were a whole hour behind schedule by the time they got back to Salinas!

"But in spite of all, I was glad they came through the Valley," said Johnson, "because they had been just about frozen out all day long. It was cold and windy in Pebble Beach--they loved the Valley, not just the scenery, but also that wonderful sun."

Driver of one of the 25 cars was Sheriff Vic Tibbs, reportedly spending quite a bit of his time at this hobby, nowadays.

Four-Lane Highway Meeting Still Set For Next Tuesday

After a two-weeks postponement due to conflicts in speaking engagements of County officials, the joint meeting of all Carmel Valley Property Owners Associations with representatives of the County Road Department remains scheduled for next Tuesday at 8:00 p. m. in the Multi-purpose Room of Tularecito School.

Purpose of the meeting is an open discussion of the County's proposal for a widening of Carmel Valley Rd. to four lanes from the new Junior High School to Farm Center. Plan-lines have already been drawn and are scheduled for adoption at a Planning Commission hearing on August 28. Representatives of the County Road Department have previously stated that four lanes on Carmel Valley Rd. should eventually be continued through the Village.

Jack Uzzell, president of the Carmel Valley Property Owners Association, stated that following next Tuesday's meeting a questionnaire will be primed by means of which all residents may make their wishes known to County officials. Distribution will be through insertion of a copy of the questionnaire in each copy of the OUTLOOK.

"After we have heard what the Road Department people have to say, we shall know better

ANOTHER MEETING CANCELLED, YET!

The 80-unit apartment question reared its head on Val Verde Dr. in the lower Valley once more last week--but briefly, reports Joe Broadman, a resident of the street, who teaches Art at Sunset School. Broadman stated that he was approached by Clifford Phelps, a builder, and Donald Wald, an architect, who requested that he call all property owners of Val Verde Dr. together to reconsider a proposal to re-zone a 5-acre plot on that street for an 80-unit apartment.

"I'm a great believer in democratic processes," Broadman said, "so I figured all interested parties should know about this. I notified all the Property Owners Associations I could think of. Lots of property owners, and representatives from all interested groups, were scheduled to come."

The meeting was called off at the last minute by Phelps and Wald, leaving Mr. Broadman with a tremendous telephone job on his hands.

C. V. YOUTH GROUP

BY LINDA PARSONS

Hi, there! It's me again! Saturday night at the Youth Center Chris Allaire celebrated her birthday. Everyone came. No one knew it was for Chris, but I guess word got around, because when we brought in the two, heart-shaped cakes, everyone started singing Happy Birthday.

Then we had another mess with all the ice-cream, and pink lemonade was all over the place.

We had a balloon popping time at 11:30 p.m. Naturally, what boy could leave a big balloon alone! So now Chris is Sweet Sixteen and we have another woman driver on the road!

The Youth Center is missing its president. Juanita Flammini is vacationing. She's on her way to Elk River, Minnesota. We all hope she has fun. Well, I'll be visiting you again next week!

By John Jacoby

4-H'ers are very busy now preparing their exhibits for the Monterey County Fair. Many of the members are also putting finishing touches on the Club's Feature Booth Exhibit. Uniforms are being put into order. The big week is almost here.

Livestock members including Bill Muscutt, Carolee and Jim Amos, Donna and Clayton Carter, and Bob Whiteman have given (or will be giving) talks about 4-H and about the Junior Livestock Auction to be held on August 25th at the Fair Grounds. Question and answer periods have followed these talks at the Lions Clubs of Carmel, Pacific Grove, and Monterey, at the Kiwanis Clubs of Seaside, Carmel, and Monterey, and at the Rotary Clubs of Carmel and Monterey.

Remember--there will be no 4-H meeting in August. The next regular meeting is scheduled for September 25th.

GOOD LUCK, 4-H'ers! And to what we need to ask in the questionnaire," Uzzell explained.

SUGGESTIONS

Uzzell feels it is up to Valley residents to suggest alternatives to the 4-lane plan if that is unacceptable to them.

"In past years, every time the County has made a suggestion, we have said 'no'," Uzzell stated. "Naturally that gives them an out--so they don't have to do anything. That doesn't solve our problems, either. We must come up with some workable suggestions which their engineers can then proceed to investigate."

As an example, Uzzell cited the Property Owners suggestion of last May that one of the "Porter's Curves", across from the Hudder residence on C.V. Rd., be straightened. County officials have been working on that problem in good faith ever since, Uzzell said. A complete engineering survey has been in progress and at last inquiry was so near completion that results may well be reported at next Tuesday's meeting.

everyone: Please come to the Fair to see just what we have accomplished. We are proud of our work, and we feel that you will be pleasantly surprised.

STORE ADDITION TO CARRY CLOTHING

Construction has begun on an addition to Carmel Valley Hardware store in Valley Center. Owner Robert Kvenild announces that a "work and school" clothing department for men and boys will be instituted upon completion. The delays which seem inevitably to accompany all construction these days have pushed forward the completion date, however, so that the department will not be able to open before school begins this fall.

The addition to his store will also make it possible to carry a larger supply of sporting goods.

OPEN LETTER

another brassy gas station or bar in a hurry?) And if they have their way, they will eventually give us a highway straight to Greenfield so that loaded trucks can roar thru our residential valley day and night to deliver their goods to the Peninsula. If you ever listen to the blessed natural quiet here around 2 or 3 in the morning, you'll recognize how it used to be. Now we have the hum of commuters morning and evening. Make it possible for constant high speed and loaded trucks to split the lovely air day and night, and you might as well move back to Los Angeles suburbia!

As we talk to our neighbors, our property owner's assoc., and write letters we will try to be open-minded and positive in our proposals:

1. Ask the highway commission to take plenty of time in planning our road.

2. Ask the highway commission to offer good alternatives (parallel roads where Valley is wide enough; simple roads leading out of the valley over the hills to Seaside or Fort Ord, if we must go there; more painted lines on road where passing is hazardous, etc.) And most important of all in the long-range view, we must insist on their keeping in mind the Sky-line road that in the very short future would be most functional in leading traffic to the Peninsula while by-passing this Valley of homes.

3. Ask the commission to begin at once to correct the really hazardous places on the road such as the Porter curve.

4. Ask the highway commission to keep in mind the necessity of a roadside path to accommodate hikers, bikers, school children and horses...

5. If they must slash away in some areas, ask the highway men to replace each beautiful tree that they remove.

The State Highway Commission is at last recognizing that they must pay heed to local community wishes. County road commissions should recognize this too.

This is still our local community, even tho one of our representatives, who lives in Pebble Beach, recently spoke of "those people out there" rather than WE. WE are the ones to be considered but we'd better say so fast before we are given something we don't want. Our officials won't know how we feel if we don't say it to them, to our Property Owner's Association and to our friends and neighbors. Otherwise our Valley as we love it will be quickly going.... going.... GONE.

Very Sincerely
Marian E. Weygers

NAVY COUPLE RETURNS

Lt. Cdr. Donald Wilson, his wife, Nancy, and their three children, Deborah, Kenneth and Judy, have returned for their second tour of duty on the Peninsula. In 1959 they were in Line School; now Lt. Cdr. Wilson is in Sec. SAA-2a of the Engineering School. They are delighted to be back, and we almost forgot to mention an integral part of the household: Toodles, the poodle. Toodles seems to think that M. F. is the greatest.

NEWCOMERS

New to the Peninsula and settled on Birch Pl., are Lt. Cdr. and Mrs. Robert L. Foltz, lately of Norfolk, Va. Their son William, 18, will attend M.P.C., while Bruce, 10, and Randall, 6, will go to River School. They have been stationed on the West Coast before, in San Diego, so Bruce is a native Californian. This is their first time in this area, however.

Lt. Cdr. Foltz is in the Post Graduate School, working toward a degree in Political Science. When we talked to Mrs. Foltz, Ann, she was in the midst of upholstering a chair. We wished her good luck on the project and hope that they enjoy their stay here.

TEMPUS FUGIT

Looked long in the mirror this morning and decided that I was somewhat less than enthusiastic about reaching the half-way point in what has been decreed, the normal life span of three score and ten. There is something about having another year roll around that makes the female of the species, at any rate, pause for this long look at herself. All of the time-worn clichés about age come to mind, "You're over the hill", "Life doesn't begin 'til forty," and so on and on. The head of this household seems to like, "Grow old along with me, the best is yet to be." We have decided to take the optimistic point of view (since we couldn't find any new wrinkles) and celebrate, not count, the years. You're only as old as you feel!

RECTORY ON BIRCH PLACE

Dr. and Mrs. John T. Ledger are getting settled in the house they have leased from Lt. and Mrs. Al Johns on Birch Place. Dr. Ledger is to be the new rector of St. John's Episcopal Chapel in Monterey, replacing Dean Lovgren, who is retiring.

They have vacationed here many times while still living in Reno, where Dr. Ledger was rector of Trinity Church for sixteen years. They are very familiar with our Peninsula and have a great fondness for it.

Soon to be visiting them is their oldest son, John Jr., his wife, and two year old daughter. They will stop on their way from Bellingham, Wash., where Mr. Ledger Jr. has been chaplain of Western Washington College, to Chicago. There he will study for his Ph.D. on a scholarship, at the University of Chicago. The Ledger's younger son, Edward, is attending Sacramento State College.

We thoroughly enjoyed our chat with two very nice people, and hope that they will be happy in Mission Fields. They are a most welcome addition to our neighborhood.

Along the River

BY LAVINIA DAVIS

The major topic "Along the River" this week was the Broncos with their flashing bats and tremendous base stealing.

It is apparent that Pony League is now well established in the Valley and meets a great need for boys of this age. Certainly, the excellent support by Valley fans encourages this valuable activity.

Howard Lockwood, sponsor, whose support of the team has been of such help to the team, says he's happy to be of assistance and modestly insists on giving all credit to the boys and managers. He feels it is important for the business men to support these activities, he says, "the kids and the coaches deserve the credit."

"I am convinced Pony League is firmly established in the Valley and that it belongs here," he further stated, "I love baseball and I know what it has done for me and I know what it will do for these boys. The way problems are handled on a ball field will have a great deal to do with the way problems are handled in later life."

And we feel that sums it up very well, indeed.

PHOTOGRAPHS

I will personally come to your home and photograph you, your children or your family in Direct Color or in Black and White.

PORTRAITS

As representative for many of the country's leading portrait painters, I will be happy to arrange for your portrait to be painted from life, or from sets of specially taken photographs.

Further Interesting Information

Of great interest to new customers is my method of taking the photographs. Thirty-three years of experience in photographing the country's leading families; a two-man camera team; specially designed equipment; psychology, toys and magic—combine to capture completely alive expressions and to delight, rather than strain both the parents and children.

WOLTER-LUCE WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Don Luce (the former Jennie Wolter) toast each other during the reception held at Los Laureles Lodge following their wedding ceremony at the Church of the Wayfarer last week. The wedding cake is Danish, from the town of Solvang, where the couple will reside when both resume their teaching positions next fall. Right now they're honeymooning in Idaho, the groom's native state. Jennie is the descendant of one of the Valley's pioneer families, a past Worthy Advisor of the Order of Rainbow, and--as if anyone in the Valley could have forgotten--was, not so many years ago, the 4-H Diamond Star.

BALDWIN ORGAN CLUB PICNICS AT "DUNROVIN"

Platters of baked ham and turkey, all kinds of salads, and huge home-made cakes regaled members of the Monterey Peninsula Baldwin Organ Club recently when the group held its annual family picnic at "Dunrovin", the rancho estate of the Tom Chapmans in Carmel Valley. On hand to swim, relax around the pool and eat were Messrs. and Mesdames Graydon Boyd, Harry Danilson; Fred Fairweather, Stanley Newlin, Don Sheely, Avery White, Don Howland, and LaVerne Dectar; Mesdames Sylvia Gates, Philoma Goldsworthy, Cora Kogl, Florence LaMay, Dorothy McAnaney, Ray Walters, Doris Goodpasture, Irene Johnston; Messrs. Wayne Edwards, Al Rhoney, and Bob Stilage. Among the youngsters enjoying the outing with their parents were Kandy and Kristy Kogl, Brian McEl-downey, Annette, Janet, and Ronnie Sheely, Dennis Walters, Chris Galios, Peggy and Joe Goodpasture, and Glen and Don Howland, Jr.

Memories of Carmel Valley and their enthusiastic host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Roberts, will be shared by two young ladies participating in the tour sponsored by the Association for World Travel Exchange. This group makes travel arrangements for young people from foreign countries interested in the culture and way of life of people in our country.

Ineke de Wys of Amsterdam, Holland, was assigned to the Roberts family by the Church of the Wayfarer. She has been studying Bio-chemistry for two years at Columbia University and following the tour will accept a teaching fellowship in Paris. Curious and enthusiastic about everything she saw, Ineke brought a fellow traveler, Aina Ehn of Stockholm, Sweden, to the Roberts Ranch at El Caminito and Ford Road for a day. Both girls loved the Valley and seemed to appreciate and enjoy even a brief taste of family life after their busy sightseeing schedule.

The Roberts had previously participated in a Rotary Foreign Student Visa Program in Burlingame, and had established friendships in Japan and Thailand by visiting in private homes. They are looking forward to another tour and another opportunity to exchange views with young guests from foreign lands.

Home from a vacation of camping, fishing, and water skiing are the Walt Mauseys. June and Walt met the David Hoisingtons at Lake Roosevelt in Washington for "one of the nicest vacations we have ever had!" Other points of interest included Crater Lake, Oregon and Mt. Lassen, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. James Miller of Aliso Rd. and her children were among the 51 members of the F. J. Bohrman family of Pacific Grove who gathered for a picnic at George Washington Park last week to honor Mr. and Mrs. Bohrman on their 48th wedding anniversary.

Former "Outlook" editor, Ed Reed and wife, Linda, are proudly announcing the July arrival of 7 lb. 11 oz. Deborah Janet. The Reeds, now living in San Jose, also have a son, Eddie.

Cdr. and Mrs. Robert Brewer were honored by the wives and officers of the Naval Post-Grad School's Section C-9 at a dinner dance at the Silk Horse Lounge. A farewell gift was presented to Cdr. Brewer, who has served as Section Advisor. The Brewer twins, Cathy and Robin, and 13-year old sister, Donna, are caught up in the excitement of moving to their new home in Naples, Italy.

Mrs. John Woods was hostess to the Auxiliary of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department last week at her home on Lower Circle.

Maid of honor, Ann Loomis, wore a royal blue suit with matching velvet hat at the Carmel Highlands wedding of Gayle Anderson and Gary Donat.

We extend our sympathies to Dr. J.D. Wood, who is back at his Carmel Valley Veterinary Clinic after a week's absence following the death of his father.

Guests last week of Mrs. Beth Williams were Mr. and Mrs. Marion Heisch of Yuba City and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Walker of Alameda.

George and Evie Ferris drove to San Francisco where they met former residents, Janice and Dick Donovan, and attended the production, "Kismet."

Carmel Valley Horsemen

BY SUSAN PULLMAN

Everyone was pleased with the large turnout for our 14th Annual Roundup last Sunday.

There was plenty of action in the roping and arena events.
 Youngsters had a rough and tumble ride on the calves but all in all no very serious accidents.

The food and refreshment stands were kept busy all day.

There were participants in the events from Salinas, Hollister, Atherton, Novato, Watsonville, Los Gatos, Carmel Valley, San Jose, Gonzales, San Lucas, Monterey, Greenfield, Los Banos,
 King City, Santa Cruz, Dos Palos, Tres Pinos, Gilroy, San Martin, Carmel, and Fresno.

Space prohibits publishing all the winners, but winners from Carmel Valley were:

Trail Class: 4th place, Susan Pullman; Best Dressed: Small Fry, Tony Willis; Halter Class: 4th place, Betty Wilson; Mixed Team Roping: 3rd place, Mary Shorey, with her partner from Gonzales;
 Calf Riding: 4th place, Susie
 Votaw; Invitational Team Roping: 2nd place, Leo Berta, and his partner from Salinas; Horsemanship 12 and under: 5th place, Susie Votaw.

The highlight of the day was when Mr. Clark showed his Arabian stallion, Rabashi, in his act of 17 gaits, seeing was believing that a horse can be trained to do gaits that are not natural to that breed!

STRICTLY SNAFU !

The OUTLOOK apologizes for an idiot error. An article last week welcomed Mr. and Mrs.
 Charles Hunt to the community;
 they purchased the former Dinsmore home on River Rd.
 Mrs. Hunt wished to thank her new neighbors for the many kind things done for her when she and her husband moved in.
 But, inexcusably, the OUTLOOK somehow switched names and referred to Mrs. Hunt as "Mrs.
 Dinsmore" throughout that part of the article. Please do excuse!

NEW ACTORS' CO-OPERATIVE CHOOSES FRENCH COMEDY FOR INITIAL PRODUCTION AT THE TANTAMOUNT THEATRE

The cast of "The Thieves Carnival" poses across the stage of Carmel Valley's Tantamount Theatre. The Jean Anouilh comedy is now played Fridays and Saturdays in the elegantly-converted barn. The scene here is Lady Hurf's handsome villa in the South of France.

TELEPHONE BUILDING LANDSCAPING STARTS

Landscaping is being installed around the Pacific Telephone building in Carmel Valley Village. Pfitzer Junipers, Deodar Cedars, and Monterey Pines are being planted, personally, by manager Chuck Kline of Valley Hills Nursery. An automatic sprinklersystem has already been installed to permit eady permanent maintenance.

CO-OP NURSERIES SPONSOR BOOTH

Carmel Valley mothers participating in the CV Co-operative Parent-Nursery School will be on hand one week from today at the County Fair booth sponsored by Parent-Nursery groups throughout the Peninsula. They'll be giving general information about the Parent-Nursery program and specific information about the Carmel Valley group

Miss Pamela Gamble of Carmel Valley will be honored by her "hometown" on August 26, a week from this Sunday, with a Bon Voyage party just before she flies to Atlantic City for the Miss America competition.

Having been away from home most of the summer, Pam has been invited to submit a guest-list of the friends she would like to see before her departure. For these, a private swimming party will be held from 3:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.

The press, assorted political dignitaries, and sundry Valley residents will be invited to greet Pam and her friends at a larger party to be held at the Carmel Valley Inn from 5:00 to 7:00 p. m.

Both parties will be sponsored by the Carmel Valley Chamber of Commerce.

TASSAJARA SPRINGS

A VERY OLD AND REMOTE SPA IN THE MOUNTAINS BETWEEN
CARMEL VALLEY AND BIG SUR

Tassajara began business as a resort around 1880. Its character has not changed a great deal since that time. * It offers a comfortable retreat into a vast and spectacular wilderness area, simple serenity and fogless sunshine. Our TV reception is nil, radio reception only fair.

The food is seasoned and imaginatively planned. The recreations are gentle and imaginatively unplanned. It's a wonderful place to unwind.

Write Box 68, Carmel Valley

*Even the road is in somewhat original condition and occasionally provides a nice test for motor and motorist. However, if you're in no mood for a test, our station wagon will fetch you. Check with us for details.
